

I believe the best use of the spectrum under consideration is for it to be used for unlicensed application.

I do NOT want the FCC to auction the rights to an unlicensed underlay. This proposal, if accepted, would entirely defeat the purpose of unlicensed access. Worse, it would set a negative precedent that could severely limit the expansion of unlicensed wireless access.